

The country's leading end of life education program that changes patient care by transforming the lives of caregivers.

Sacred Passage Guidance & Healing with the Arts™

Five-Day Residential Immersion in beautiful Crescent Beach, Florida
August 10-16 -- CNEs available
Investment: $845.00 with food & lodging extra

Early bird discount: 10% off tuition, $760.50 if paid by July 10
Scholarships available

An extraordinary program for clinical professionals and non-medical caregivers seeking an end of life sacred healing practice model allowing them to:

- Explore their relationship to death
- Renew their purpose and power as healing agents
- Increase healing presence and bring sanctity, beauty, and quality moments to patients and families during the transitions of dying

The program is right on the beach, providing a very special place where for five days, living together, being on the ocean, eating cooking meals together, exploring dreamwork, art, and special practices will all play a very special part in this extraordinary opportunity.

Accommodations range from twin beds in shared rooms to private master suites. Prices for lodging will vary based on type of room. Rooms are available on a first come first served basis.

All inclusive pricing before discounts/scholarships:

Master Suite - $1645

Private Room - $1585

Shared Room Queen - $1515

Shared Room Twin - $1465

Registration and Information:

<http://tarronestesandassociates.com/events/>

Tarron Estes – 303-619-7902 Tarron@consciousdyinginstitute.com
Healing with the Arts – www.healingwiththearts.com

Join Tarron Estes, Founder
Conscious Dying
Institute &
Mary Rockwood Lane,
PhD, R.N. F.A.A.N.,
Assoc. Professor UF
College of Nursing

"My passion is teaching conscious dying education. My work is intense, expressive, releasing, hands-on, direct, honest, unabashedly heart opening and real to the core."

Mary is a professor, painter, nurse and author. She teaches Creativity and Spirituality in Healthcare at the University of Florida, College of Nursing.

