Feb. 15

8:30 a.m. – 5 p.m.

In the Terrace Room
at Norman Hall courtyard
UF College of Education

Workshop
Description

A central process in grieving entails reconstruction of the bereaved person's world of meaning. Participants will explore this perspective through systematic presentation and hands-on practice with meaning-making strategies.

Lunch provided CEUs offered for licensed clinical practitioners Seating is limited; RSVP required by Feb. 2

This free workshop is the kickoff presentation in the Arthur G. Peterson Lectureship Series on Death Education at the UF College of Education
